INDEX.

A.

Adams, J. C., his scientific papers reviewed, 60—early years, 72—astronomical amusements, 72—at St. John's College, Cambridge, 73—resolves to investigate irregularities of Uranus, 73—Senior Wrangler and Fellow of his college, 74—discovery of Neptune, 74—neglected by Astronomer Royal, 75—Leverrier's parallel discovery, 75—'Adams prize' for astronomy &c., 78—Professor of Astronomy at Cambridge, 78—lunar acceleration, 79—orbit of November meteors, 80—marriage, 82—death, 83.

Africa, South, review of books concerning, 245—Jameson Raid inquiry, 246—Capetown Committee, 247—House of Commons Committee, 248—Jameson trial, 249—Chartered Company and the Raid, 252—letter of invitation from Johannesburg, 253—preparations for revolution in Johannesburg, 254—charges against Mr. Rhodes, 256—Dr. Jameson's reminiscences of Mr. Rhodes, 257—case for and against Mr. Rhodes, 259—Mr. Chamberlain's policy, 265—Conventions of 1881 and 1884, 267—Boer infractions of Conventions, 269—the new Governor of Capetown, 271—future of Chartered Company, 272.

Airy, Sir G. B., his autobiography reviewed, 60—early days, 62—at Trinity College, Cambridge, 63—Senior Wrangler and Fellow of his college, 64—in love, 64—Professor of Mathematics, 65—Professor of Astronomy, 65—mathematical and astronomical works, 66, 71—Astronomer Royal, 67—work at Greenwich Observatory, 67—Transit of Venus and Solar Eclipse expeditions, 69—Knighthood and University honours, 70—numerical lunar theory, 70—resignation, 70—death, 71—neglect of Adams's discovery of Neptune, 75.

Archer, W., his translation of life of Nansen reviewed, 307.

Astronomers, Two Recent, see Adams, J. C., and Airy, Sir G. B.

B.

Babelon, E., his book on engraved gems reviewed, 331.

Baedeker's 'Upper Egypt' reviewed, 454.

Bauer, Dr. M., his book on precious stones reviewed, 331.

Brögger, W. C., and N. Rolfsen, their life of Nansen reviewed, 307.

Brunswick, Charles William Ferdinand Duke of, review of books concerning, 140—nephew and pupil of Frederic the Great, 140—related to Royal Family of England, 141—placed in command of British and Hanoverian forces, 143—achievements during Seven Years' War, 143—exploit at Fulda, 145—wounded, 146—his personal character, 146—popularity in England, 147—marries Princess Augusta of England, 148—his opinion of married life, 149—succeeds to Dukedom, 149—success as ruler, 150—encourages men of ability, 151—chosen head of league of German States, 152—Mirabeau's sketch of him, 153—Frederic the Great's opinion of him, 155—invasion of Holland, 156—policy with regard to Poland, 159—his advice sought by Frederic William II., 163—French overtures for his services, 164—invasion of France, 167, 172—dislikes French émigrés, 170 ; and Austrians, 171.

C.

Cherry, R. R., his books upon the Irish land question reviewed, 401.
Church, A. H., his book on precious stones reviewed, 331.
Commons and Common Fields of England, review of books concerning, 114—origin of commoners' rights, 115—Domesday survey, 117—statute of Merton, 118—inclosure of common fields, 120—Inclosure Acts, 120—benefits of inclosure, 121—reaction against inclosure, 123—movement in favour of open spaces, 124—Wimbledon Common, 124, 125—Commons Preservation Society, 125—Hampstead Heath, 126—Berkhampstead Common, 127—litigation and legislation, 129—Metropolitan Commons Act, 130—rural commons, 131—Commons Act, 1876, 132—inclosures under copyhold grants, 134—Commons Amendment Act, 1893, 135—village greens, 136—public rights on sea shore, 139.

Conway, Sir W. M., his 'Alps from End to End' reviewed, 33.
Creux, J. H., his book on Pitt and Frederic William II. reviewed, 140.

E.

Edwards, A. B., her 'Pharaohs' &c., reviewed, 454.

F.

Fitzgerald, E. A., his 'Climbs in New Zealand Alps' reviewed, 33.
Freshfield, D. W., his 'Exploration of the Caucasus' reviewed, 33.

G.

Germany, Internal Crisis in, review of books concerning, 505—monarchical absolutism and parliamentary institutions, 505—economic revolution, 507—income tax and property tax, 508—land mortgage, 509—imports and exports, 509—bounties, 510—Constitution of the Empire, 511—powers of Emperor and Federal Council, 513—Imperial Diet, 514—political parties, 515—Old Conservatives, 517—Moderate Conservatives and Liberals, 520—Progressists, 522—Roman Catholic Centre, 523—Social Democrats, 525—Anti-Semite movement, 527—Prussian party, 529—Emperor's policy, 531—Count von Caprivi, 534—Kotze scandals, 534—Emperor William's militarism, 535—hatred of England, 536—Prince Bismarck, 538—general elections, 540—Cologne Conference on Social Politics, 541.

Glaisher, J. W. L., his memoir of John Couch Adams reviewed, 60.

Grais, Graf H. de, his handbook on government reviewed, 505.

H.

Hamerton, P. G., his life and works reviewed, 432—fastidiousness, 433—passion for arrangement of details, 434—his wife's criticisms, 435—etchings, 436—failure as landscape-painter, 437—Mr. Peter Graham's advice, 437—'Camp in the Highlands,' 439—'Autobiography,' 440—views upon death, 440—his parents, 441—juvenile tour in Wales, 443—education and athletics, 444—notes on pictures, 446—influence of Ruskin, 446—marriage, 447—settles in France, 448—art critic of 'Saturday Review,' 449—'Etching and Etchers,' 450—'Landscape,' 451—'Round my House,' 'French and English,' and 'The Intellectual Life,' 452.

Hunter, Sir R., book on preservation of open spaces reviewed, 114.

I.

India, Native States of, review of books concerning, 188—688 sovereignties, 189—Himalayan States, 190—Rajputana, Central Provinces, and Bengal States, 191—Bombay sovereignties, 192—roads and railways, 194—isolation, 195—Nawab of Arcot, 196—limitations of powers, 197—treaties, 198—British suzerainty, 199—internal authority, 202—education of young princes, 204—European tastes of rulers, 205—visits of chiefs to Viceroy and Empress of India, 206—imperial control of railways, telegraphs, and postal communication, 207—resident political officers, 208—duty of rulers towards subjects, 209—laws, 209—education, 210—Sir Salar Jung and Sir T. Madhava Rao, 211—natives in Government employ, 212.

Instinct, review of books concerning, 173—definitions of, 173—instances among animals, 174—inherited and acquired capacity, 175—habit, 178—in ducklings, 178—in partridges, 179—in insects, 180—in plants, 182—fertilisation of plants, 184—fly-catching plants, 185—sensitive plant, 186.

Irish Land Question, review of books concerning, 401—Mr. Gerald Balfour's Act of 1896, 401, 408—Mr. Gladstone's Act of 1881, 404, 417—security for tenants' improvements, 404—Ulster custom of tenant right, 405—Act of 1887, 406—Mr. Arthur Balfour's Act, 407—Redemption of Rent (Ireland) Act of 1891, 407—dual ownership, 410—Purchase Acts, 411—Land Commission, 411—fair rents, 414—protection of landlord's right, 417—landlords' losses, 419—agricultural development, 420—Land Courts, 422—Land Improvement Loans, 428.

Italy, Prosperity and Politics in, review of books upon, 1—national aspirations realised, 1—discontent, 3—agrarian disturbances, 3—condition of Southern Italy, 4—education, 4—secret societies, 6—freemasonry, 6—communal government, 7—abuses in local administration, 9—mismanagement in foundling hospitals at Naples, 10—brigandage, 11—civil service, 12—posts and telegraphs, 13—peculation of public moneys, 14—Signor Crispi and earthquake fund, 15—bank scandals, 15—parliamentary franchise, 16—bribery and corruption, 18—ballot, 19—political parties, 22—Crispi's administration, 24—Rudini ministry, 26—reforms, 29—relief in taxation, 30—the army, 31.

J.

Jameson, Dr., his reminiscences of Cecil Rhodes reviewed, 245.
Jevons, F. B., his 'Introduction to the History of Religion' reviewed, 213.

K.

Ker, W. P., his 'Epic and Romance' reviewed, 381.
Kingsley, Mary H., her 'Travels in West Africa' reviewed, 213.
Kunz, G. F., his book on gems reviewed, 331.

L.

Lefevre, G. S., his book on English commons and forests reviewed, 114.
Liberalism, review of books concerning, 483—changes in political standpoints, 484—McCarthy's 'History of Our Own Times,' 486—Nationalist depreciation of Mr. Balfour's Irish administration, 488—Irish Land Act of 1881, 488—Bradlaugh controversy, 489—growth of democratic sentiment, 490—changes in character of House of Commons, 491—Particularist or Nationalist movement independent of Liberalism, 492—Mr. Parnell's plan of campaign, 493—'secondary nationalities,' 495—Liberals and land law reform, 495, 499—Oxford Liberal movement, 496—democratic electoral reform, 499—veto power of House of Lords, 499—Labour problem, 501—Local Veto Bill, 501—Free-trade, 502—Liberal principles, 502.
Lowell, A. L., his 'Governments and Parties in Continental Europe' reviewed, 1, 505.
Lubbock, Sir J., his 'Scenery of Switzerland' reviewed, 33.

M.

McCarthy, J., his 'History of Our Own Times' reviewed, 483.
Mahan, Capt. A. T., his life of Nelson reviewed, 84.
Maitland, F. W., his 'Domesday Book and Beyond' reviewed, 114.
Maspero, G., his 'Dawn of Civilisation' reviewed, 454.
Massenbach, Col. von, his memoirs reviewed, 140.
Miers, Prof. H., his 'Cantor Lectures' reviewed, 331.
Morgan, C. L., his book on habit and instinct reviewed, 173.
Mountaineering, Modern, review of some books upon, 33—Alpine literature, 34—Mr. Mummery in Alps and Caucasus, 35—Mr.

Whymper in Great Andes, 36—Mr. Fitzgerald in New Zealand, 42—Swiss guides, 38—Sir M. Conway's 'Alps from End to End,' 40—mountain sickness, 41—Mr. Coolidge, 42—Professor Tyndall's scientific work in the mountains, 42—Sir J. Lubbock on Alpine geology, 44—books of travel, 45—Mr. Freshfield in the Caucasus, 47—Caucasian roads and people, 49—Elbruz and Central Group, 51—mountain scenery, 53—disaster to Messrs. Donkin and Fox, 54—Alpine illustrations, 56.

Müller, Prof. Max, his book on mythology reviewed, 213.

Murray's Handbook to Egypt reviewed, 454.

N.

Nansen, F., books concerning his Polar expedition reviewed, 307—sketch of history of Arctic research, 308—early years and scientific training, 315—first acquaintance with Arctic ice at Jan Mayen, 316—curator of Bergen Museum, 317—first crossing of Greenland, 317—transpolar current suggested to him by relics of 'Jeannette,' 319—the 'Fram' constructed to resist ice pressure, 321—voyage of the 'Fram,' 321—'Fram' frozen in, 322—ice-quakes, 322—life in winter on board the 'Fram,' 323—Nansen's Poleward journey by sledge and boat, 324—Arctic Crusoes, 325—meeting with Mr. Jackson in Franz Josef Land, 325—return to Norway on the 'Windward,' 326—the 'Fram's' safe journey with the ice-drifts, 326—scientific results, 327—Polar archipelago, 328—Aurora Borealis, 329—new departure in Arctic exploration, 329.

Naville, E., his 'Deir-el-Bahari' reviewed, 454.

Nelson, review of Capt. Mahan's life of, 84—changes in conditions of naval warfare, 84—treatment by Lord Hood, 87—taking of Bastia, 88—blockade in Gulf of Genoa, 90—battle of Cape St. Vincent, 94—disastrous attack on Santa Cruz, 96—right arm shattered, 98—'tragedy and misery' of his private life, 100—battle of the Nile, 102—meeting with Lady Hamilton at Naples, 106—Horatia, 107—battle of Copenhagen, 108—frustration of Bonaparte's designs, 110—pursuit of French fleet to West Indies, 111—Trafalgar, 113.

P.

Peary, R. E., his 'Great White Journey' reviewed, 307.

Petrie, W. M. F., books on Egypt reviewed, 454.

Powell, B. H. B., his 'Indian Village Community' reviewed, 188.

R.

Religion, Primitive, review of books upon, 213—African demonology, 217—divinities, spirits, and disembodied ghosts, 217—killing of wives at husband's funeral, 218—migratory souls, 219—sacrifice and incantation, 220—witchcraft, 220—disease and death ascribed to malignant spirits, 221—victims of witchcraft, 222—human leopards, 222—effects of civilisation, 223—comparative method in study of religions, 224—monotheism and evolution of belief, 225—the supernatural, 227—taboo, 229—totemism, 235—science of mythology on religious basis, 237—ethnology and myth, 240—difficulties of synthesis of religious evolution, 242.

Rhodes, Cecil, biography by 'Imperialist' reviewed, 245.
Ritcher, E., his 'Political A B C Book' reviewed, 505.
Romance, Ideals of, review of books concerning, 381—war-legends, 385—glorification of valour, 386—Northern Sagas, 387—semi-Christianised Sagas, 388—love-romance, 388—Arthurian legend, 389—types of womanhood, 392—vengeance for love betrayed, 393—treatment of the supernatural, 394—Grettir the Strong, 395—Viga Glum, 395—Merlin, 395—Holy Graal, 397—religious romance, 399.
Russell, B., his 'German Social Democracy' reviewed, 505.

S.

Saintsbury, G., his 'Flourishing of Romance' reviewed, 381.
Science and Theology, Warfare of, review of Dr. A. D. White's book upon, 357—attitude of the Church towards scientific discovery, 359—Cornell University, 359—Gladstone on Genesis, 360—ancient conception of universe, 361—date of Creation, 363—Copernicus, 363—Galileo, 364—Boscovich, Kepler, Newton, 365—Buffon, 366—Cowper and geologists, 366—Smith's Bible Dictionary and geology, 366—antiquity of man, 367—Divine intervention in producing and curing disease, 369—progress of medical science, 369—legendary miracles, 370—opposition to inoculation, 371—witchcraft, 373—treatment of lunatics, 376—different missions of science and of religion, 379.
Scrutton, T. E., book on commons and common fields reviewed, 114.
Sorel, A., two of his books reviewed, 140.
Statham, F. R., his 'South Africa as it is' reviewed, 245.
Stones, Precious, review of books concerning, 331—definition of term, 331—methods of distinguishing, 332—hardness, 332—specific gravity, 333—hints for detection, 333—the diamond, 335—some historical diamonds, 336—American jewels, 337—Oriental ruby, 338—sapphires, 339—chrysoberyl, 341—cat's eye, 341—spinel, 342—topaz, 342—beryl, 343—aquamarine, emerald, 343—jacinth, 344—tourmaline, garnet, 345—carbuncle, 346—amethyst, 347—rock crystal, cairngorm, opal, 348—peridot, moonstone, turquoise, 350—lapis lazuli, 351—semi-precious stones, 352—Scripture references, 354—legendary virtues, 354—engraved gems, 355.

T.

Taylor, J. E., his book on the sagacity of plants reviewed, 173.
Tennyson, Alfred Lord, review of his son's memoir of, 275—early years, 276—prize poem on Timbuctoo, 277—enthusiastic friends, 278—Carlyle's greeting, 279—meeting with Wordsworth, 279—unpublished verses, 279—his literary opinions, 280, 294—lines on Mablethorpe, 281—letters to Miss Sellwood, 282—'In Memoriam,' 282—marriage, 284—chosen Poet Laureate, 285—in Italy and Paris, 285—'Maud,' 286—Gladstone and Jowett's appreciation of 'Maud,' 286—Ruskin, Mrs. Browning, Thackeray, and Macaulay's congratulations, 288—'Idylls of the King,' 289 Fitzgerald on 'Holy Grail,' 291—'Northern Farmer,' 291—reminiscence of Macaulay, 292—'Enoch Arden,' 293—tour with Mr. Locker Lampson through France and Switzerland, 293—twice declines baronetcy, 294—founds Metaphysical Society, 295—'Queen Mary' and 'Becket,' 296—'The Cup,' 297—accepts a peerage, 298—'Tiresias,' 'Locksley Hall,' 'Demeter,' 'Death of Œnone,' and 'Akbar's Dream,' 299—'Crossing the Bar,' 301—last talks, 302—death and funeral service, 302—letters from the Queen, 303.

Thebes, Plain of, review of books concerning, 454—up the Nile on a post-boat, 454—pyramid of Mêdûm, 454—City of the Dead, 456—temples of Thebes, 457—Medînet Hâbû, 457, 469—Deir-el-Bahari, 458—historical sculptures, 459—Thothmes I. and his daughter Hatasu, 460—Thothmes II. and III., 461—transportation of obelisks, 463—alliance of Egypt with Syria, 464—Colossi, 464—Amenhotep III. and Queen Thy, 465—Ramesseum, 466—temple of Merenptah, 466—temple of Luxor, 470—Karnak, 471—Tombs of Kings and Queens, 473—Egyptian belief in immortality, 474—body, soul, and 'Ka,' 474—'shadoof,' 479—habits of fellahin, 480—Egyptian life and character, 480.

Tupper, C. L., book on 'Our Indian Protectorate' reviewed, 188.

Turiello, P., his 'Governo e Governati in Italia' reviewed, 1.

V.

Villari, P., his book on Sicily and Socialism reviewed, 1.

W.

Warner, W. L., book on 'Protected Princes of India' reviewed, 188.

White, Dr. A. D., his book on Science and Theology reviewed, 357.

END OF VOL. CLXXXVI.

PRINTED BY
SPOTTISWOODE AND CO., NEW-STREET SQUARE
LONDON